The E. O. Stanard, en route from St. Louis to New Orleans, sunk a fuel barge, and is hard aground at Devil's Elbow cut-off, forty miles above here. She ran aground in making the crossing, and lies on the lower bar near the Arkansas shore. She lies in a bad condition, and will have to be lightened off. She has 300 tons of freight for this port. The Cons Millar is the Saturday packet for the Ohio. Captain Tichenor and Chief-Clerk Wilson wish us to keep it before the people especially those contemplating a trip east, that they will find attractive rates, including comfortable staterooms and sumptuous meals on board that first-class packet, up the Ohio to Cincinnati, and free transfer from the wharf at that city to the various lines of railway for all eastern cities. Captain R. W. Lightburne will detail particulars to parties interested.
